Estate of Nancy Brown v. **** Nursing Home, et al. CV 00-0052

Case Type: Wrongful Death-Neglect

Facts: This case involved an allegation of neglect which caused the death of 89 year old Nancy Brown. After about two weeks at the facility, Ms. Brown was rushed to a local emergency room where she was diagnosed as being severely dehydrated. She died a few days later from complications of the dehydration. A wrongful death lawsuit was filed by Mark Wolfe of Boteler, Finley & Wolfe on behalf of the Estate and after a year and a half of litigation, a confidential settlement was reached.
